

Ripon Grammar School

Anti-Bullying Policy

Introduction

- 1.1 The Education and Inspections Act 2006: Section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 provides that maintained schools must have measures to encourage good behaviour and prevent all forms of bullying amongst students.
- 1.2 A key provision in The Equality Act 2010 is the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED), which covers age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. The Duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:
- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act
 - Advance the equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
 - Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
- 1.3 Definition of Bullying: taken from Department for Education Preventing and Tackling Bullying Advice for Headteachers, Staff and Governing Bodies July 2017:
- “Bullying is a behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally. Bullying can take many forms (for instance, cyber-bullying via text messages, social media or gaming, which can include the use of images and video) and is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups, for example on the grounds of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, special educational needs or disabilities, or because a child is adopted, in care or has caring responsibilities. It might be motivated by actual differences between children, or perceived differences”.
- 1.4 Homophobia and other LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender) abuse are other forms of bullying, for example in the use of terms such as ‘gay’ towards other students, and is dealt with in the same way as other forms of bullying. The school also aims to promote positive role models, through assemblies and the PSHCE programme and the use of Stonewall guidance. (www.stonewall.org.uk)
- 1.5 Racism and Religious Intolerance are also forms of bullying. Positive role models are used in assemblies. PSHCE and other areas of the curriculum to ensure students are fully aware of the importance of developing tolerance and respect towards everyone in school and in the wider community, irrespective of ethnic or religious background.
- 1.6 Cyberbullying: RGS acknowledges the increasing potential for problems caused by the development of new technologies. Cyberbullying is defined as “the use of Information Communication Technology (ICT), particularly mobile phones and the internet, deliberately to upset someone else”. The school promotes the positive use of technology both within and beyond school. Students' awareness of appropriate behaviours is promoted through regular reviews of "Appropriate use of new technologies protocols", and all students receive additional advice through 'Internet safety lessons'. Additional information can be found on the website www.thinkuknow.com that can be accessed from the school's website and there is a student guide on using the internet safely.

- 1.7 Sexual Bullying: any bullying behaviour with a sexual element. This behaviour can be between children and young people of any gender and/or sexual orientation. The school endeavours to create an environment where sexism is not tolerated; where personal space for students and staff is respected; where sexist language and comments are challenged, and where students feel empowered to say no to any unwanted touch.
- 1.8 The School's View: The governors value the good relationships fostered by the school among parents, students and staff, and expect that every allegation of bullying will be taken seriously and fully investigated. Some experts say that a student should be treated as being bullied simply because they say they are. The governors agree that this is an attitude that RGS will adopt.

All staff, students and parents should be aware of the strongly negative effects that bullying can have on individuals and on the school in general and should work towards ensuring that all students can work in an environment without fear; where they feel confident, safe and happy.

The whole school community therefore agrees that bullying is unacceptable at RGS; it will not be overlooked or tolerated. RGS also accepts its responsibility to take note of bullying perpetrated outside school, which spills over into school. The school will do what is reasonably practicable to eliminate such bullying.

2. Policy

- 2.1 Demonstrate that RGS takes bullying seriously and that it will never be overlooked or tolerated.
- 2.2 Promote positive attitudes and relationships among students such that the chance of bullying occurring is minimised.
- 2.3 Take measures to prevent all forms of bullying in the school and during off-site activities.
- 2.4 Support everyone in the actions to identify and protect those who might be bullied.
- 2.5 Demonstrate to all that the safety and happiness of students is enhanced by dealing positively with bullying'.
- 2.6 Promote a school culture where telling someone about bullying is never viewed as an offence but is the caring and responsible thing to do.

3. Procedures

3.1 Geographical Area to which the policy applies

This policy applies to the school buildings and grounds.

The policy applies to bullying beyond the school premises. School staff have the power to discipline students from misbehaving outside the school premises (Section 90 and 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006). This may include bullying incidents occurring anywhere off the school premises, such as on school trips and off-site events, on school or public transport, outside local shops, or in a town or village centre.

- If bullying is suspected or reported, the matter will be dealt with immediately by the member of staff to whom the incident was reported.
- A clear account will be recorded and given to the relevant Head of School
- The investigating member of staff will take statements and interview everyone involved. Detailed records will be kept. This record will be held in line with the school's data protection policy.
- Form tutors will be kept informed by the Head of School and, if necessary, information will be shared with appropriate subject teachers.
- Parents and other relevant adults will be kept informed.
- Where bullying occurs outside of school, any other relevant agencies will be informed and advice/support obtained.
- Sanctions will be issued in line with the RGS Positive Behaviour Policy and restorative work employed when necessary.
- Where a student is involved in bullying outside of school, parents will be asked to work with the school in addressing their child's behaviour, for example by monitoring and restricting their child's use of the internet or social media.

3.3 Preventative Measures

- The school will raise awareness of the nature of bullying through inclusion in PSHCE, tutorial time, assemblies, curriculum areas and informal discussion, as appropriate, in an attempt to eradicate such behaviour.
- The school will maintain a safe learning environment where all students feel safe, secure and valued; students know they will be listened to and taken seriously.
- Participate in local and national initiatives as regards Anti-bullying strategies.
- Seek to develop links with the wider community that will support inclusive, anti-bullying education.
- Consider the use of specific strategies e.g. house system, peer mentoring and respond to discussion from School Council

3.4 Monitoring, evaluation and review
