Assistant Headteacher [Head of Boarding]

Required for January 2026 – or sooner if possible

Full time [Part time over 5 days per week may be considered for the right candidate]

Salary: Leadership Scale L12-L16
[currently £65,604 - £72,512 pa – teachers' pay award pending]

The Post

We are seeking an outstanding Assistant Headteacher who, as a member of the Senior Leadership Team, will provide pastoral and academic leadership of our boarding provision, be the resident housemaster/mistress of our girls' boarding house and be an inspirational teacher. In addition, there will be a leadership role within the day school which will be suitable for the right candidate.

The successful candidate must have experience of a boarding school environment, ideally have residential experience, a deep passion for education and be in sympathy with selective education.

The role will include duties in the girls' boarding house [typically two evenings per week and some weekend duties]. This position is also a teaching post with any subject specialism considered. Non-contact time will comprise PPA time and time allocated for the assistant head role and in recognition of the duties in house.

As this is a residential position, 3-bedroom family accommodation with garden and parking is provided on site as an annex to the girls' boarding house.

The School

Ripon Grammar School is a nationally renowned boarding and day school where academic progress and outcomes are exceptionally high and where a commitment to educating the whole child is highly valued.

Our students are bright, motivated and academically demanding; as a result, Ripon Grammar School is a very rewarding place to work.

The staff are highly professional, sociable and supportive and we take professional and career development seriously.
