A Level English Literature Trip to Haworth

Dear Parent,

We are studying Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights as one of our two set prose texts for A level in English Literature. To enhance the pupils' understanding of the text and context, I have arranged a trip to the Brontë Parsonage Museum in Haworth on Wednesday, 23rd November 2022. There will be a specialist talk and tour, along with time to explore the village in small groups: previous visits have shown it to be of immense educational value.

We will travel by coach and will leave at 8.15am, returning to school by 3.55pm for the end of the school day. Pupils will need to bring a packed lunch, can wear their own clothes, and dress warmly.

The total cost will be £17.50p to cover entrance to the museum and transport, and is payable via ParentPay; permission can be given on the same site, so there is no need to return a letter or reply slip.

Any concerns about cost or any other aspect of the trip should also be raised with Mrs Mars, via email if possible, to marsh@ripongrammar.com, as should any pertinent medical information not already held by the school.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. H. Mars
