

In this guide, you will find details of film adaptations on major TV channels this Christmas.

Your school librarians will happily help you find books based on films you enjoy. Or anything else for that matter!

Happy viewing, and reading!

Thanks to the following for help in compiling this list.

Lucy Campion, Radcliffe School, Milton Keynes; Paula Copeland, Claires Court, Maidenhead; Elaine Cormack, High Life Highland, Inverness; Lisa Friel, King Edward VI Grammar School, Chelmsford; Rita Halsey, John Lyon School, Harrow; Shelley Holman, St Christopher's C.E. High School, Accrington; Miss L Kinsella, St John Bosco Arts College, Liverpool; Daryl Lowe, Bemrose School, Derby; Miss O'Brien, Arden Academy, Solihull; Sarah Seddon, Gillotts School, Henley-on-Thames; and Amanda South, Merchant Taylors' School, Middlesex.

WHAT I'D LIKE TO SEE ON FILM...

October, October by Katya Balen

Last year's Carnegie winner, and runner up in our book award is a touching tale of a girl who has to adapt to an entirely new way of life when her world comes crashing down around her. I'd love to see the woods where October lives with her dad and see her story shown on film.

Helen Smith, Eckington School

WHAT WE'D LIKE TO SEE ON FILM...

Then by Morris Gleitzman

In this sequel to Once, Felix and Zelda continue their escape from the Nazi occupation of Poland. It is well researched and truly teaches about the horror of war and persecution, whilst shining a light of courage and hope.

Miss O'Brien, Arden Academy

City of Ghosts by Bali Rai

This would be an epic period drama with a massive, diverse cast. The story addresses the part played by Indian men during WW1 and the sacrifices they made among the background of religious tensions, and the role of Britain. I never cry. I cried at the end of this one.

Daryl Lowe, Bemrose School

Running Out of Time by Simon Fox

This is an absolute page turner, a sci-fi thriller that jumps around time. I can definitely see it being made into a film as a sort of cross between Mission Impossible and Groundhog Day.

Lisa Friel, King Edward VI Grammar School

WHAT WE'D LIKE TO SEE ON FILM...

When Life Gives You Mangoes by Kereen Getten

A wonderful story about friendship and forgiveness that involves an intriguing mystery and a brilliant twist.

Paula Copeman, Claires Court

Unraveller by Frances Hardinge

With imaginative settings, characters you really get to know and a gripping race-against-time storyline, Frances Hardinge's new book would made a cracking film. Crawdads meets Hunger Games, crossed with Minority Report!

Amanda South, Merchant Taylors' School

Pages & Co by Anna James

Imagine if your favourite book characters started coming to life. That is exactly what happens to Tilly in her grandparent's bookshop, Pages and Co. Something strange is going on and Tilly is determined to find out what - let the bookwandering begin!
